Camp Lael began as the Detroit Baptist Camp in 1947. "Lael" is the Hebrew word meaning "of God". Today, Camp Lael exists as a nondenominational Christian youth camp. The camp is located seven miles northwest of Lapeer, 10 minutes from I-69. The property is a mix of open grassy areas and big deep woods, bordered by Skinner lake. The facility is rustic and beautiful.

We want this camp experience to be one that is remembered and cherished forever. We provide personal attention and work hard to build and maintain an environment in which campers feel they can be themselves, make friends, and have fun! Our staff are First Aid, and CPR trained. Our lifeguards and the health officer are certified by the American Red Cross. Camp Lael is licensed by the State of Michigan as a child care provider.

Camper to staff ratio is 2:1 for this experience.

Campers must be mobile, toilet trained, and at least 16 years of age.

Camp cost is $175.00 per camper. Scholarships assistance is available by contacting Jim or Ami .
